Our Privacy Promise

Our stakeholders entrust MHCDF with their personal information. Whether you are a donor, volunteer, partner organization, or interested party, we are firmly committed to conduct business honestly and to protect your personal information and privacy.

We Respect Your Confidentiality

MHCDF requires that your personal information be held in strict confidence. We use your information only for its intended business purpose. We do not sell, trade or share your information with other organizations or individuals.

We Protect Your Information

MHCDF works hard to ensure that your information is not compromised in any way. Unless specifically indicated to you, no one other than MHCDF officers, directors, and employees have access to your information. In all other situations, we allow access to your information only as may be required by law.

Our privacy of your information extends to our Internet website. Online event registration, information requests, and online donation processing is done through secure third party vendors who have proven track records at securing and protecting personal information. We take every reasonable measure to ensure that information you provide to the MHCDF through electronic means is properly protected.

If you choose to send us an email, we may retain the contents of your email message, our reply and your email address as part of our ongoing customer service efforts. We reserve the right to contact you after you have contacted us and may send future email and /or communications to you about MHCDF. You may notify us via email if you wish to discontinue electronic communication.

We Keep Accurate Records

We keep your personal information as accurate, complete, and up-to-date as required to fulfill the purpose(s) for which you provide us with your personal information. Upon request in writing we will remove your personal information from our databases, except where legislation or regulation requires our retention of it (for example, charitable giving history tied to income tax purposes).

Modifications

We may periodically update or modify this policy so please review it from time to time. We maintain the option to modify this privacy policy at any time by notice posted on our website. Your continued use of our website after the date that such notices are posted will be deemed to be your agreement to the changed terms.

If you have any questions about our Privacy Policy, please contact us at 704.827.5262 or by email at mounthollyfoundation@gmail.com.
